

ROE JAN LIBRARY

ON EXHIBIT AT THE LIBRARY

Paintings by Sue Arnholter

On exhibit from September 2 through October 31.

Join us for an opening reception on Saturday September 5, 1 - 3 p.m.

A bit about Sue - “As a young teenager I dabbled a little with drawing and oil painting, not really knowing what I was doing. It wasn’t until I reached my 70s that I picked up a paintbrush and a pan of watercolors in an attempt to improve my knowledge of color theory for making quilts. I still make quilts but most of my time is spent painting now because I enjoy it so much.”

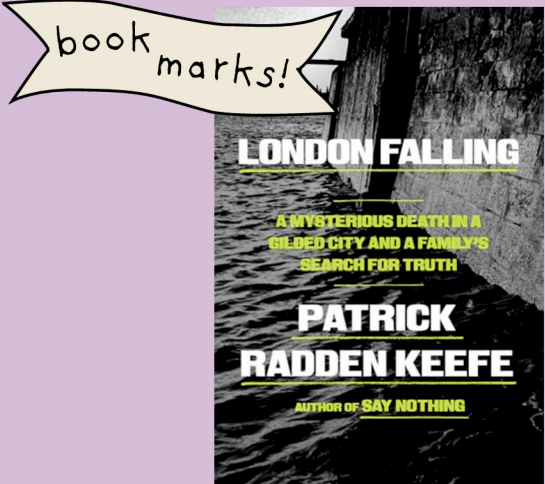

Photographs by Anna Winand

On exhibit in ‘The Little Gallery’ from September 2 through September 30.

Join us for a closing reception on Sunday September 27, 12 - 3 p.m.

A bit about Anna - “A lifelong New Yorker, I worked for the International Center of Photography (ICP) since its opening in 1974. Prior to that, I was an associate of ‘The Voice of the Children,’ a writing workshop for teenagers in Fort Greene, Brooklyn. On Sundays when people would congregate near the Bandshell in Central Park to be seen and to connect, I went to photograph. Photography was always a part of my life from early on. In 2012 I moved full time to Craryville, New York.”
